We don't let terrorists do our urban planning for us. The Twin Towers were meant to stand forever and they should be rebuilt.

— Darin Allan / All Other Americans

The world was robbed of the 21st-century Twin Towers most of us always wanted.

For all those that perished may God have mercy and for us all that survived.

From what we know, from history, this is not new but less known.

We should respect and, hopefully, love but not hate as the case seems to be.

Lets look into a better future

I was born and raised in Brooklyn and I could see the towers from where I lived. Let's put them back for the people of America and also to send a message to those against our way of life that we are not afraid.

Allowing terrorists to alter the NYC skyline is a tragic mistake. Rebuild the towers, add a memorial and return the world's greatest skyline to what it was on September 10th, 2001 to show any who would dare think they have the power to do so through terrorism they are wrong and cannot—and will never—succeed.

It breaks my heart to see our skyline so empty when need to rebuild our towers, they are the heart of New York, and it shows that we can overcome anything.

Nadia Nastaskin Metro New Yorkers 6/25/2007
Dear Friends!

I agree with all of you a 100%- World Trade Center shall be re-built and the money that otherwise is wasted and pocketed on the war in Middle East shall be put to build it. My opinion is: build the towers the way they were, in the middle of the complex make a Memorial to all people and hopes that perished on that land, and let all the artists from around the world donate their work, that expresses that artist's 9/11 sorrow, to the Memorial. New York is an APPLE OF THE WORLD'S EYE.

I remember my last trip prior to 9/11 vividly. We discussed going to the WTC, something I had never done before, but decided "we'll do it next time." Sadly, my next trip was in November, 2001.

Nothing would please me more than to see them rebuilt, looking exactly as they did before. It would be a cause for celebration and slap in the face of our enemies! This Texan knows New Yorkers can do anything they set their minds to and they have my support. I love NY and the Twin Towers!!

Of course, rebuild the towers. There are no other choices.

Chalmer Basham All Other Americans 6/24/2007
In the late 80's and early 90's I rode trains in and out of the WTC on my way to and from work in the old Western Union Building. Nothing impressed me more about the NYC landscape than those two big towers and as I watched their destruction I knew the world had changed forever.

Rebuilding the "Towers" would be a fantastic "in your face" response to all cowardly terrorists and their fellow traveler "America Haters".
God have mercy on and bless America!!!!!!

I don't know of a better way to say we are just as strong as ever and we will not be intimidated by terrorists. I think we should even add a story.

Why wouldn't we rebuild the towers? That is the true American way. We are not defeatist. We have never let another country or fanatic ideology dictate what we do. Those that would not rebuild the towers or offer something less are cowards.

Robert & Maria Eltus All Other Americans 6/24/2007

Enough is enough, put the towers back where they belong.

this is America, not Patakiville.
Fight their foolish freedom tower, it is disgraceful.

It is an empty space right now. Buil the towers and it will be filled with honor and pride.

Restoring the twin towers is the greatest tribute we can give to those who lost their lives.

Choosing not to rebuild is choosing to be controlled by terrorists.
- The Twin Towers are what NYC chose to have prior to 9/11. We should restore our city and our country to show we have not be defeated and to honor our lost Americans and their families.

I feel strongly that if we don't rebuild the towers exactly as they were, our enemies will have won!

Rebuild the towers, don't let the b____ds win! Why give them the satisfaction of knowing that they can dictate the skyline of our cities?

I have never been to NYC. As an American, the events of September 11th weighed and continue to weigh heavy on my heart – just like my fellow citizens, I'm sure. A decent respect to the victims of that horrible day dictates we do what they ostensibly would want done – to live in Freedom, just as we did before, as we must do now – proudly, publicly, and in the Love of our Great Nation. There can be no finer memorial to those who lost their lives than to rebuild the towers. God Bless America!

-  Shawn Sant All Other Americans 6/24/2007
We must not let the attacks upon our country keep our fighting spirit suppressed. The towers should be built at least as tall to show that we will not fear. There is no better memorial to those that fell on that day than to rebuild. New twin towers is the best memorial.
-  Bill Schureman All Other Americans 6/24/2007
Rebuilding them would be a great testament to this nation and our strength. It would also be 2 giant middle fingers to the Islamist who would dare try to destroy our way of life.

I was angry, upset and heartbroken when I watched the attack of the towers that morning on 9/11/2001. As soon as they collapsed I said that we should rebuild them exactly as they were. Anything less, and the terrorists have won. Even if we build a different structure on the site with less than two towers, the terrorists have won because they changed our behavior. We can use today's architectural standards to make the buildings stronger to withstand another attack.
-  Dustin Walker  All Other Americans 6/24/2007
The ultimate sign of the resolve of the United States would be to rebuild the Twin Towers bigger and better than before. Anything else would make the sight permanently demeaned by the destruction of those 19 sons of bitches.
-  Dan Curley  All Other Americans 6/24/2007
Constructing new buildings that are smaller and less impressive than the originals is making a statement to our enemies that "You can knock down our largest buildings and we won't have the pride to put them back where they were." Buliding smaller, "safer" buildings is a sign of cowardice and, in my opinion, a victory for the enemy. We must show them that we will not be cowed.

Please Note: This petition is meant to provide a forum for this subject alone. It is a petition, not a bulletin board. We will not sanitize controversial remarks if the comments are primarily in support of the petition's purpose. But off-topic remarks are subject to removal on a case-by-case basis to keep the focus where it belongs. Thank you.

Important Mention: Those who read back over the comments will find that from time to time we have highlighted excerpts to help those who only have time to skim a page get a sense of what people are thinking and feeling. We rarely do that now and it was never a methodical effort, but just a window on public opinion regarding this monumentally important issue. The important thing to know is that no comment matters more than any other. Each one is valued and helps make the case that the public was sidelined on something that mattered so much.

TTA Note: Occasionally a current signature will disappear. When that happens it is because someone who has already signed the petition signs a second time and when the second signature is validated the two are automatically merged and appear in the original chronology. If someone leaves a second signature and comment, it automatically overwrites the earlier placement when the validation link is activated. If it isn't activated, or it is made using a different email address, there will be duplicate signatures. When we recognize that someone has signed before, we will delete the earlier entry and, if it was verified, verify the new one, since the clear intention is to make the new comment visible. We may decide to manually include the earlier comment at the end of the current message.

Regarding anonymous signatures: Taking a stand using one's full name is always preferred, but when a name is withheld, the signature and sentiments are still of value. In every case, we have an email address that corresponds with the entry and is kept private.

* Indicates that the signer has not yet activated the validation link, often due to spamblocking software. They are included out of respect for the sincerity of the comments.
