Yes, absolutely rebuild the Twin Towers.

 Paul Wilson All Other Americans 7/1/2007
Rebuild the Twin Towers! Make them even taller this time.

 Mark Malatesta All Other Americans 7/1/2007
The towers should be put back EXACTLY how they where. I have ALWAYS thought this.

It would be a big Forget You to the haters of freedom and democracy.

Yes, rebuild the towers.

I've loved these building since I was a child. I feel remorse every time I see a video ir picture of the New York skyline without the towers.

Rebuild them- Taller.

 Al Leggett All Other Americans 7/1/2007
REBUILD 'EM !!

 Wiley Ehrke All Other Americans 7/1/2007
The towers should be rebuilt, taller than before.

 Richard Busacca All Other Americans 7/1/2007
Nothing would speak to the futility of the "Ilsamo-facists" attack then to throw the towers right back up in the skyline. It's as if we were knocked back for a second but here we stand,... united,... again.

 John Whitehouse All Other Americans 7/1/2007
If the passengers of Flight 93 had failed in their heroic efforts to stop the terrorists, and that flight had reached the Capitol building or the White House, would they have been rebuilt? What about the Statue of Liberty or Independence Hall? Would we have let them be replaced by a Motel 6? Were the Towers anything less? Absolutely not! The Towers were

 ILona English 9/11 Families & Close Friends 7/1/2007
We must honor all the victims of 9/11 - those we knew and all those we didn't know. BUILD THE TOWERS - make the statement to the terrorists - WE WILL REBUILD EXACTLY WHAT YOU TOOK AWAY FROM US.

 martin kuss Metro New Yorkers 7/1/2007

 Jon Whitehouse All Other Americans 7/1/2007
Don't let the political poltroons of NY's high public offices decide what should stand in place the WTC. The twin towers were not just a study in architectural skill.

They were a bold statement of what could be accomplished in a free society.

It is an insult to dub the WTC replacement as the Freedom Tower, given the manner in which the decisions for its choosing were made.WITHOUT YOU! Those who died in the attack on 9/11 deserve better. Rebuild the WTC like it was.

 Ryan Christensen Our Armed Forces & Families 7/1/2007
I want my Towers back!

 Brian Hill All Other Americans 7/1/2007
I can't think of any other monument that would be more appropriate than that which was stolen from us. There is no better way to honor those lives that were stolen.

 Dave Patton All Other Americans 7/1/2007
Restoration of the twin towers should not be an option. Return to the country that which was taken.

 Andrew Sheward All Other Americans 7/1/2007
I whole heartily agree re-build the towers bigger and better. And let the world know that America is still the greatest country in the world and won't be bullied by anybody!

 joe zupancic All Other Americans 7/1/2007
Time for America to stand up and be the world leader instead of cowering and pandering to all the special interest groups of the world!!!!!! If we offend you, TO BAD!!! It's our right in this country. Rebuild them, bigger and better. If we don't stand up soon we we will never be able to stand up again.

 Jaime Cubano All Other NY & NJ Residents 7/1/2007
I say let's get back to the business of keeping the pride of America, enough talk it's time to do and do it right! Rebuild the towers!!

attacked ONLY because the represented American ideals. Show that those ideals are worth standing up for; put the Towers back! NOW!

 Sandy Buchner All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Rebuilding them as they were would be the best memorial which could ever be built.

Donald Trump made this case a year or two ago. I agreed then and couldn't agree more now. Rebuilding the Twin Towers would say to the world and to all terrorists, you cannot win.

 Glenn McDermott All Other NY & NJ Residents 7/1/2007

 John Bancroft All Other Americans 7/1/2007

I support re-building the Twin Towers to show the terrorists we will not be intimidated.

 Scott Hart Our Armed Forces & Families 7/1/2007

I believe that the greatest tribute to those who died, and the strongest message we can send their murderers, can be achieved by returning the towers to their original glory. So much has changed as a result of the attacks, and I think that we need to bring things back to the way they were, to show the terrorists that we will not be swayed by their evil. Building an "art peice" on that site would not have the same impact, and would still leave me feeling hollow when I look at the skyline.

 Brent Hodgeman All Other Americans 7/1/2007

 Tony Osting All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Yes, build them as they were. BUT, add ONE MORE FLOOR, and make that prt of our memorial to the victims. It's time we stuck something in their eye for taking our towers. They laugh and plot against us with each passing day. Let's give them somthing to look at each day.

 Jerrod Pfeffer All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Rebuild them exactly like they were. Simple. Why wouldn't we do this? I am for this.

 Tom Daly All Other Americans 7/1/2007

 Greg Adkisson All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Resistance is not futile. It's time for all Americans to realize the true nature of the threat we are under and begin to fight back as one nation, one voice. I propose the '301 Club'.

After seeing the film 300, I decided to become number 301 in the stand against the oppression and domination. I stand with the Greeks against a threat to freedom that is just as real today as it was in ancient times.

JOIN THE RESISTANCE!

 Jim Grabarits All Other NY & NJ Residents 7/1/2007

I was living in Clifton on September 11th and saw the towers burn from Grove Street near my home. I was in the Marine Reserve at the time and have been on active duty for three years since then to the mideast and Iraq.

I think there should be something equal to or bigger than the WTC towers to show the world our steadfastness. When the Arizona was sunk at Pearl Harbor they built new battleships that were bigger and better to replace her. Not just for the war, but for the show of resolve.

 Craig King  All Other Americans 7/1/2007

 Charlotte Tyler All Other Americans 7/1/2007

We are in the best country on Earth. We, the people, want the towers back. We hire public servants, aka the politicians, to do our bidding. Let's not let them get in the way of doing our bidding.

 Lowen Overby  All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Rebuild them exactly as they were. The NY skyline was a symbol of power and achievement recognized world wide. Now, it looks like an extension of New Jersey.

 Tim Louis Metro New Yorkers 7/1/2007

Really exciting to know that getting our tours back is still possible. Let it be known, putting it back in place will send the strongest message to the world, and to the terrorists.

 Joe Little All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Rebuild the Towers...Just as they were girder for girder. That is a true monument to those that lost their lives on that terrible day. A defining statement that says "We will not go quietly into the night, we will not vanish without a fight!" Show the world we are not afraid

 David W A Stanford All Other Americans 7/1/2007

When I first saw the Twin Towers from the Empire State building I was struck by the beauty and sheer size of them. When the sun hit them just right they glimmered like fine silver. New Yorkers told me that they were a great landmark and they were very proud of them. To this day when I think of New York I think of those towers. They were in LOADS of movies from when I was a kid, granted I'm not very old. They came to be as American as apple pie to me and many in my generation.I want them back!

 Paul Whitehouse All Other Americans 7/1/2007

The attacks made Americans stand a little taller and stronger. Put the towers back taller and stronger as well, not only as a memorial for those who were lost, but a symbol of our character and resolve aa Americans!

 Jeff Bracken All Other Americans 7/1/2007

As the great General George Patton once said "Americans love a winner and will not tolerate a looser". We loose if we don't rebuild. We MUST rebuild as these buildings are a symbol of this country's success and will to succeed. These buildings represent the awesome nature of this country, not just New York. Please bring back America's Twin Towers.

 Geoff Miller All Other Americans 7/1/2007

The Twin Towers should be rebuilt exactly as they were...or perhaps even one story taller than before, as a subtle gesture of defiance. New structures of a different style would only be a constant reminder of that terrible day.

 William Snodgrass All Other Americans 7/1/2007

I think it's wrong that this process has taken so damned long. I'm sick of the politicalization.

 Anthony Alva  All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Build the towers again! It's been too long! I'm tired of waiting!

 Sean Smith All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Rebuild the towers and find out who was really responsible for their destruction and the other events of 9/11 We need an independent investigation! The 9/11 commission report is a bunch of lies.

 Mike LeHoty All Other Americans 7/1/2007

 robert spinelli Metro New Yorkers 7/1/2007

The second biggest tragedy in NYC is that we arenâ€™t rebuilding the WTC exactly as it was. It's almost 6 years later and nothing has been built. Lets start building, but do it right and put back the Twin Towers.

 Jerry Elia All Other NY & NJ Residents 7/1/2007

I watched it go down. I want to see it UP again!!

Please Note: This petition is meant to provide a forum for this subject alone. It is a petition, not a bulletin board. We will not sanitize controversial remarks if the comments are primarily in support of the petition's purpose. But off-topic remarks are subject to removal on a case-by-case basis to keep the focus where it belongs. Thank you.

Important Mention: Those who read back over the comments will find that from time to time we have highlighted excerpts to help those who only have time to skim a page get a sense of what people are thinking and feeling. We rarely do that now and it was never a methodical effort, but just a window on public opinion regarding this monumentally important issue. The important thing to know is that no comment matters more than any other. Each one is valued and helps make the case that the public was sidelined on something that mattered so much.

TTA Note: Occasionally a current signature will disappear. When that happens it is because someone who has already signed the petition signs a second time and when the second signature is validated the two are automatically merged and appear in the original chronology. If someone leaves a second signature and comment, it automatically overwrites the earlier placement when the validation link is activated. If it isn't activated, or it is made using a different email address, there will be duplicate signatures. When we recognize that someone has signed before, we will delete the earlier entry and, if it was verified, verify the new one, since the clear intention is to make the new comment visible. We may decide to manually include the earlier comment at the end of the current message.

Regarding anonymous signatures: Taking a stand using one's full name is always preferred, but when a name is withheld, the signature and sentiments are still of value. In every case, we have an email address that corresponds with the entry and is kept private.

* Indicates that the signer has not yet activated the validation link, often due to spamblocking software. They are included out of respect for the sincerity of the comments.
