The world was robbed of the 21st-century Twin Towers most of us always wanted.

Click above for more comments that rebuke the cynicism that tried to replace the Twin Towers and failed.

The tragic victims would want nothing less, otherwise their deaths were in vain. I would be honored to work in the new Twin Towers.

It's imperative that The Towers be rebuild as they were, not only as a tribute to those that perished but, as a symbol that We as Americans will NOT be swayed in our resolve to prevail and replace, if we have the power to do so, the things that are part of our national fabric and pride. The World Trade Center Twin Towers was such a 'thing'. Don't let the terrorists succeed...place the Towers as they were...

I lost six good friends on 9/11, I want the towers back in memory to them.

Rebuilding the towers higher than before would be an important act of self-assertion on the part of America, and an important demonstration to our enemies that we will not give in.

 Northrup Buechner Metro New Yorkers 4/25/2006
The same twin towers, only a little higher.

I would like to see the twin towers rebuilt – not this Freedom Tower hooley. Since I moved to the East and all the time I worked downtown, they were a symbol of NY to me. To replace them with some fancy pants design would be a disappointment.

Rebuild the towers.

 Linda De Santis All Other Americans 4/25/2006
Put the towers back, one story higher!!!!

 Ron Kelley All Other Americans 4/25/2006
Not rebuilding is a surrender to the terroists. What better way to show the American spirit than to rebuild the Twin Towers at least a few floors taller than it was before.

 Ralph Whaley MD All Other Americans 4/25/2006
Rebuild the Towers taller and more beautiful. Anything less would be disgraceful.

It should defintiely rebuilt!!!

 John Lewis All Other Americans 4/25/2006 Rebuild the Towers as they were! Anything less is national surrender.

I was born in NYC and live now in Virginia. When I made a trip to NYC in November 2005 I refused to peer into that pit in the ground...I will not visit that site until the towers (or something better)are put back! I will not pay homage to carnage!

 Michael Gaetano All Other NY & NJ Residents 4/25/2006

There would be only ONE reason to not rebuild it as it was, and that would be to build it bigger and better!

What has been proposed so far is a travesty.

Let's make the skyline whole again. To do anything less would be a victory to those that wish to intimidate us.

Rebuild, yes, as a memorial to the victims who died there, and as a stab to the heart of those who rejoiced in this evil.

But rebuild the same? We must look back, but we should also look forward. The new towers should be awe-inspiring.

 Kurt Fuss All Other NY & NJ Residents 4/25/2006
Rebuild the towers in the memory of all those who have fallen. Lets show the rest of the world that we will overcome the tragedy of 9/11!

Whenever America is faced with adversity, we rise up and conquer it. Let's rebuild the Towers to be bigger and better than before!!

 Robert Aldrich All Other Americans 4/25/2006
I feel the Twin Towers need to be rebuilt, for both esthetic and spiritual reasons.

Please Note: This petition is meant to provide a forum for this subject alone. It is a petition, not a bulletin board. We will not sanitize controversial remarks if the comments are primarily in support of the petition's purpose. But off-topic remarks are subject to removal on a case-by-case basis to keep the focus where it belongs. Thank you.

Important Mention: Those who read back over the comments will find that from time to time we have highlighted excerpts to help those who only have time to skim a page get a sense of what people are thinking and feeling. We rarely do that now and it was never a methodical effort, but just a window on public opinion regarding this monumentally important issue. The important thing to know is that no comment matters more than any other. Each one is valued and helps make the case that the public was sidelined on something that mattered so much.

TTA Note: Occasionally a current signature will disappear. When that happens it is because someone who has already signed the petition signs a second time and when the second signature is validated the two are automatically merged and appear in the original chronology. If someone leaves a second signature and comment, it automatically overwrites the earlier placement when the validation link is activated. If it isn't activated, or it is made using a different email address, there will be duplicate signatures. When we recognize that someone has signed before, we will delete the earlier entry and, if it was verified, verify the new one, since the clear intention is to make the new comment visible. We may decide to manually include the earlier comment at the end of the current message.

Regarding anonymous signatures: Taking a stand using one's full name is always preferred, but when a name is withheld, the signature and sentiments are still of value. In every case, we have an email address that corresponds with the entry and is kept private.

* Indicates that the signer has not yet activated the validation link, often due to spamblocking software. They are included out of respect for the sincerity of the comments.
