The world was robbed of the 21st-century Twin Towers most of us always wanted.

Just found your web site linked off Drudge Report. I happened to watch an old movie last night, Escape from New York. The old WTC had a major part in the movie. I was thinking again how stupid it is that they haven't been rebuilt yet. I don't understand it at all. Hope this helps.

 Richard Tirendi All Other Americans 7/1/2007

More than a cathartic experience, rebuilding the Towers demonstrates America's resiliency. In no uncertain terms, our enemies must know that there is absolutely NOTHING they can do stop this great country and her citizenry from life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Rebuild proud, rebuild taller, rebuild now.

 david james All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Rebuild the towers, any other option allows the terrorists to change our country by their cowardly actions. To rebuild the exact same towers would show the b*stards that we are far more powerful and enduring than they are. Plus, when we finally capture Bin Laden, we can execute him by throwing him off the new towers and let him experience first-hand the horror he brought to his victims. Man, that would be some "must see tv"...

 Jon Hall  All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Rebuild the towers!

 Ron Shaffer All Other Americans 7/1/2007

We have already taken far too long to start the rebuild. I for one think they should have been rebuilt no later than 2005.

 John Partridge All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Build one story higher than original, but mostly identical. With technological improvements, and perhaps some sort of symbol at top: red, white and blue lit bands around top floors, or a giant lit image of a US flag, facing east.

Also, remember the flashing lit signs depicting a cartoon character with his middle finger extended, that caused an uproar in Boston and other cities? Lets put up a really big one on the side of the new North tower, facing east.

 Adam Grisak All Other Americans 7/1/2007

 John McCartney All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Do the right thing...rebuild the twin towers.

 Emma DiPaola  All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Rebuild the Towers, and one story higher.

 Josh Wells All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Bigger and Better! That is America! Be strong not weak!

We went to the moon sooner than was our goal why so long with this?

 Leon Ramirez All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Yes, rebuild the towers Stronger, Safer, and with another Ten floors! America does not cower, we fight back even harder!

 Andy Seitz All Other Americans 7/1/2007

What better way to show the islamic terrorist scum that they have not won anything than putting the towers back. Kill them wherever they are found and rebuild anything that they manage to blow up.

 Grady & Paula Stimmel  All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Rebuilding the towers has always been the only reasonable response to the slap by islamofacists.

 Ian Farnsley All Other Americans 7/1/2007

If we don't rebuild, the only thing we memorialize is our enemies ability to hurt us. Rebuild now!

 chuck robbins All Other Americans 7/1/2007

YES>>>from the beginning I've advocated rebuilding the original towers. A memorial could be easily be included. Let's stop all the B—T.

Thanks

 James Krass All Other Americans 7/1/2007

The pentagon was rebuilt the same way, why not the towers?

I'm sure if anything else would have been too. The Towers represented America and the American way. Get them back in the skyline the way they were, and show the world.

 Scott Moody Our Armed Forces & Families 7/1/2007

It's the right thing to do.

 Bob M All Other Americans 7/1/2007

I believe that rebuilding the Towers is something that should be done. I think that the Towers being rebuilt would be a major ideological blow to anti-American terrorism worldwide.

 Micah Davis  All Other Americans 7/1/2007

 Mike Hemming All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Nothing would be more inspirational to the American people than putting the towers back exactly like they were. Maybe adding one additional floor as a memorial to all of the Americans who lost their lives

We're kicking their butts over there.
DO NOT hand the terrorists a win OVER HERE.

It is time to rebuild the towers at a minimum of 111 stories. I am angry that this project was not started after ground zero was cleared!

- Douglas Hayes Our Armed Forces & Families 7/1/2007
My fellow countrymen, it is unthinkable to not re-build these fabulous symbols of American might, innovation, and the inner strength that we all have. They symbolize what's great about all of us - everyone. Lets do it. - LT Hayes
- Keith Wuchter All Other Americans 7/1/2007
This has always been THE ONLY REAL SOLUTION. America must unite and stop the pandering wimps trying to turn this whole thing into a "Why it's our fault the towers came down memorial". We cannot allow these terrorists todo this to us. It they take them down again, rebuild them again. Defy the urge to give in tothese thugs.

- john kelly  All Other Americans 7/1/2007
Put them back like they were!

that day. It would also show the rest of th world who we are. You may hurt us, but we will remain the people that made this country great no matter what.

Jason Sulzbach All Other Americans 7/1/2007
This is what the American people want and need, we won't forget the "freedom tower" wasn't free!

Robin Miller All Other Americans 7/1/2007
From the moment the Towers fell on that horrible day, in my mind there never has been another option but that we should rebuild as they were, except even taller and better. Anything less is a victory for our enemies, and I can assure you that THEY see it that way. I'm sickened every time I see that empty skyline — oh and think how the terrorists rejoice! — and it needs to be restored; I honestly don't believe there can be any true "healing" for New York City or the United States without it.

Chris Scalise All Other Americans 7/1/2007
The first thing I thought when people were wondering what to do with the site was "rebuild the towers taller and stronger than before". What is so hard to figure out?

Scott Hagen All Other Americans 7/1/2007
These buildings need to be put back as they were. They should be halfway up by now. It is only the politicians that prevent this. They always seem to "know" what is best for us. If they don't listen this time, they need to be voted out. The American people are capable of and can handle anything. It is our government, our eternal babysitter, that denies us the ability to reach. It is sad.

Build the Twin Towers as they stood. It will show Bin Laden his only accomplishment on 9/11 was to awaken the sleeping giant once again. Japan made that mistake and paid a terrible price, as Mr. Bin Laden will.

Cynthia Peterson All Other Americans 7/1/2007
I was in Manhattan this May for the first time since 9/11 and even though I was expecting it I was so saddened not to see the towers standing as sentinels. I went to the site and was appalled that so little had been done and although there were "plans" it still seems like there was too much uncertainty about how and especially when. I too agree that not rebuilding the towers is the only way to tell the terrorists that they will not beat this country!

Mack Johnson All Other Americans 7/1/2007
This is what I have been saying since September 11, 2001. This would be the most profound way of saying "you did not beat us"!

Dennis Merrigan All Other Americans 7/1/2007
Rebuild them. Make them 1 floor taller than before and give them a gold finish.

Please Note: This petition is meant to provide a forum for this subject alone. It is a petition, not a bulletin board. We will not sanitize controversial remarks if the comments are primarily in support of the petition's purpose. But off-topic remarks are subject to removal on a case-by-case basis to keep the focus where it belongs. Thank you.

Important Mention: Those who read back over the comments will find that from time to time we have highlighted excerpts to help those who only have time to skim a page get a sense of what people are thinking and feeling. We rarely do that now and it was never a methodical effort, but just a window on public opinion regarding this monumentally important issue. The important thing to know is that no comment matters more than any other. Each one is valued and helps make the case that the public was sidelined on something that mattered so much.

TTA Note: Occasionally a current signature will disappear. When that happens it is because someone who has already signed the petition signs a second time and when the second signature is validated the two are automatically merged and appear in the original chronology. If someone leaves a second signature and comment, it automatically overwrites the earlier placement when the validation link is activated. If it isn't activated, or it is made using a different email address, there will be duplicate signatures. When we recognize that someone has signed before, we will delete the earlier entry and, if it was verified, verify the new one, since the clear intention is to make the new comment visible. We may decide to manually include the earlier comment at the end of the current message.

Regarding anonymous signatures: Taking a stand using one's full name is always preferred, but when a name is withheld, the signature and sentiments are still of value. In every case, we have an email address that corresponds with the entry and is kept private.

* Indicates that the signer has not yet activated the validation link, often due to spamblocking software. They are included out of respect for the sincerity of the comments.
