The world was robbed of the 21st-century Twin Towers most of us always wanted.

No memorial to 9/11 would be complete without the Twin Towers, rebuilt, resplendent, in tribute to the fallen heroes and rebuke to the terrorists.

Lets roll!

arthur walter * All Other Americans 7/1/2007
We want our skyline back! We will never go down in defeat!

Ian Harrison Metro New Yorkers 7/1/2007
Built them as high or higher and put a finger in the eye of the Islamic terrorist that did this and their stupid ideas!

Sandy Santiago Metro New Yorkers 7/1/2007
Exactly as they were, but more reinforced and more beautiful they should be built. Non apologetic, no short cuts, do it up right.

Keith Kutsche * All Other Americans 7/1/2007
I agree this is the right thing to do.

Michael Wahl All Other NY & NJ Residents 7/1/2007 Build 'em back! Anything else is a capitulation to the terrorists.

CristianStanulescu Citizens of Other Nations 7/1/2007
Let's build them back exactly as they were! Establish an international fund, I want to contribute, others will too! Not that the money will be needed, but it should be used, to show the morons and cockroaches that the whole world is against them! This from a Romanian – God Bless America!

Melvin Smith All Other Americans 7/1/2007
I will sometimes watch old movies just because I know they show a scene that has the twin towers pre 9/11. Certainly rebuilding the World Trade Center's twin towers as the world knows them will show the determination of the American people to not given in to terrorism. This would be the right thing to do to honor the thousands of people who went to work that September day and never went home. I have hoped that the owner/"powers that be" would get it right build them again better and higher

Steven Fogarty All Other Americans 7/1/2007 Bring back the towers. I volunteer to man the anti-aircraft missile battery on top for three eight hour stretches, once a week, every year for the rest of my productive life. Seriously.

This is a great idea... I truly thought I may be the only one thinking about this! I hope this works.

If the Twin Towers can be built in a manner that can be reasonably secure they should be rebuilt with federal, state and NYC funds if need be.

Tom DeWees All Other Americans 7/1/2007

George Roberts All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Yes! Rebuilding the towers IS the right thing to do.
Anything less than a total restoration of two equally tall and functional buildings will be seen as a victory for the terrorists. We should NOT allow them to win.

mark tyson * All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Two shining new towers would be the best memorial to the 9/11 victims that I could imagine.

ROBERT ROTH All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Rebuild the towers! Taller, stronger, with an excessive extravagance of 'bigger is better' born of the undefeated, unconquerable American spirit. Let them be beacons signaling to an envious world that we intend to fulfill our Manifest Destiny. Show them Iranian monkeys who restack the same 2,000 year old stones after each earthquake, how civilized people rebuild.

The Twin Towers were as much of a New York ikon as The Empire State Building or any of the other great buildings in the city. I say rebuild the towers and spit in the face of the radical terrorists that took them down.

Teri Hilson All Other Americans 7/1/2007

I grew up in New Jersey and visited the WTC on many class trips. I want the Twin Towers rebuilt so my heart can leap again whenever I see New York!

Fred Garvin All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Good Morning,

The best suggestion I have heard was to build THREE TOWERS w/ the center taller than the others.....ALL FACING EAST!!!!!!

Rebuild. DON'T REVISE!

 Norman Benton  All Other Americans 7/1/2007
Remember "we will rebuild"? Rebuild the twin towers and restore the NYC skyline. This would hurt terrorist morale more than any military offensive.

 Charlie Bucket  All Other NY & NJ Residents 7/1/2007

 Lee Gardner All Other Americans 7/1/2007

 Lou Garay All Other Americans 7/1/2007
Some things stand eternal. That's the way I and everyone I know feels about rebuilding the Towers just as they were, except one floor higher. I never understood the new design or what it was to represent, they were just buildings that looked like they were from a science fiction comic book. The only true way to honor those fallen and to reflect the resiliency of the American people is to rebuild the Towers.

 Jon Albright  All Other Americans 7/1/2007
Why would anything else be done? The message sent back to those who would try and tear us down with fear. We rebuild in this town and country!

My grandfather was a captain in the New York city fire department . He passed away a few years ago but I know that on that day ,Sept 11 . He was there in heaven with his hands stretched out to welcome all the fallen fireman . Nobody , But nobody must be allowed to take our way of life . Lets do the right thing . Lets re-build the twin towers to the way they were . Lets show these bastards that they lost .

 Matthew Skiles All Other Americans 7/1/2007
Like most Americans I was devastated by what happened to the WTC and the Twin Towers. They were more than a landmark, they were a national symbol that represented the strength of our democracy. I can't imagine going to New York with my family someday and seeing this so-called Freedom Tower. I haven't liked this idea from the start and quite frankly never will like this plan for the WTC site. If a majority of Americans want the Twin Towers rebuilt then let's do it.

 John Firreno All Other Americans 7/1/2007
I agree with this idea completely. Resurrecting the Towers would inspire America and defy the sick losers who perpetrated and approved of the 9-11-01 attack.

PS My compliments to the author.

 Jack Rossi Metro New Yorkers 7/1/2007
The towers should be rebuilt bigger and better. That would be the ultimate slap in the face to every terrorist the world over. Let it be known that their efforts are futile; we will rebuild stronger than ever everytime!

 Darren Bedrosian Metro New Yorkers 7/1/2007
The Twin towers were an economic & multicultural symbol of American freedom, tolerance, liberty, economic opportunity and prosperity. This is precisely why they were targeted. What better way to honor their memory than to rebuild the VERY SAME structures that the terrorists sought to destroy. This would show the terrorists that even the greatest depths of their hatred cant compare to the ingenuity and dedication of free peoples. Return the towers to our skyline!

 Melissa Gray All Other Americans 7/1/2007
We don't need another memorial to terror. Let's rebuild these towers as a memorial to LIFE. Rebuild the towers!

 Michael Meagher All Other Americans 7/1/2007
It's common sense that the Twin Towers should be rebuilt to look just as they did before, only this time their structural frame would of superior design. I think seeing the Twin Towers rise back into the skyline is just the boost Americans need. I always felt it was wrong to banish their image from mainstream media as if they were some form of taboo.

They need to rise from the ashes.

 John McCloud All Other Americans 7/1/2007
We must re-build, to show the cowards who support terrorism we will not back down from them. To make New York City like it was, Thank you and god bless AMERICA!!!

 Aaron Urquhart Our Armed Forces & Families 7/1/2007

Some standing monument that has no other purpose than to memorialize those innocent victims, would serve to honor the memory of the lives lost in that great tragedy, but to rebuild says to the bastards who would like to see more people die in that fashion that we will always come back; that they cannot destroy forever that which we endeavor to create or the way in which we choose to live and work, which is a far greater testament to the souls of those great Americans.

 Ray Dorrough All Other Americans 7/1/2007
To not rebuild the Twin Towers is to admit DEFEAT in the war on terror, pure and simple.

 Ed Reid All Other Americans 7/1/2007
Make them the world's tallest buildings again. Inform Islam that, if the towers are attacked again, Mecca and Medina will be turned into huge pieces of art glass forthwith.

 Felipe Mejia All Other Americans 7/1/2007
By building the towers EXACTLY as they were we are defeating the attackers by reducing the consequences of their attacks. Anything else in that place will be a tribute to those people who destroyed them

 Steve McConnell All Other Americans 7/1/2007
The choice is obvious! Do the right thing and put the towers back! The only change should be to add a monument to the brave people lost and to build a few feet TALLER than before to symbolize America will always come back!

 brian lasater All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Can you imagine the exhaltation as the towers rise again — to say nothing of the day of their re-opening ? The streets of New York and the hearts of the nation will swell to burtsting.

Please Note: This petition is meant to provide a forum for this subject alone. It is a petition, not a bulletin board. We will not sanitize controversial remarks if the comments are primarily in support of the petition's purpose. But off-topic remarks are subject to removal on a case-by-case basis to keep the focus where it belongs. Thank you.

Important Mention: Those who read back over the comments will find that from time to time we have highlighted excerpts to help those who only have time to skim a page get a sense of what people are thinking and feeling. We rarely do that now and it was never a methodical effort, but just a window on public opinion regarding this monumentally important issue. The important thing to know is that no comment matters more than any other. Each one is valued and helps make the case that the public was sidelined on something that mattered so much.

TTA Note: Occasionally a current signature will disappear. When that happens it is because someone who has already signed the petition signs a second time and when the second signature is validated the two are automatically merged and appear in the original chronology. If someone leaves a second signature and comment, it automatically overwrites the earlier placement when the validation link is activated. If it isn't activated, or it is made using a different email address, there will be duplicate signatures. When we recognize that someone has signed before, we will delete the earlier entry and, if it was verified, verify the new one, since the clear intention is to make the new comment visible. We may decide to manually include the earlier comment at the end of the current message.

Regarding anonymous signatures: Taking a stand using one's full name is always preferred, but when a name is withheld, the signature and sentiments are still of value. In every case, we have an email address that corresponds with the entry and is kept private.

* Indicates that the signer has not yet activated the validation link, often due to spamblocking software. They are included out of respect for the sincerity of the comments.
