REBUILD THE TWIN TOWERS! Nothing has rewarded the jihadists more than the ongoing sight of a world landmark wiped off the face of the earth.

— Dan Taylor / Citizen of Other Nations

The world was robbed of the 21st-century Twin Towers most of us always wanted.

Click above for more comments that rebuke the cynicism that tried to replace the Twin Towers and failed.

The towers are an integral part of this city. Better that the upper floors go unoccupied than to turn this site into something unfamiliar and alien. The current design is strange, compromised and without the soul and the character of what the towers now stand for.

I work for Aviation International News in NJ. Before 9/11, our office used to overlook the Twin Towers. I would love to bring back the beautiful view the office once had. They need to be rebuilt!
- Perry Kneisel All Other Americans 7/1/2007
Make 'em even TALLER this time! May God bless New York City.

I absolutely believe they should be rebuilt in an "in your face" bigger and better manner. I cannot think of a better, or for that matter another, way to honor those who lost lives and loved ones that day. Put whatever means necessary in the construction of the buildings to better protect them from threats in the future and get them back up, the sooner the better. Otherwise, the terrorists win!
- Maura Semmes All Other Americans 7/1/2007
- Karl Linderoth All Other Americans 7/1/2007
Now is the time for Americans to realize that giving in to terror is never an acceptable path to follow! To heal, we must replace what was lost in order to maintain any self respect. Anything less is cowardly and a slap in the face to all who died on September 11, 2001. This is, stated simply, a watershed event in our history. Does America maintain its status as "the symbol of freedom and democracy" to the world or do we cower when confronted by pathetic fanatics?
- David Driscoll All Other Americans 7/1/2007
Just do it. Bigger and better than before.
- Michael Forte All Other Americans 7/1/2007
If we don't rebuild the Twin Towers, it will send a message to the enemy that we don't have resolve and are weak and scared... I for one AIN'T Scared!!
REBUILD!!

If your house burned down, would you allow the insurance company to hire an abstract artist to replace your traditional, 2-story home with an impressionist polygon? I think not! So, why replace what was lost with anything other than what was lost? Please, give us a break and do the right thing!

 Michael Santasiero All Other NY & NJ Residents 7/1/2007

What a better way to show American resolve than to rebuild the towers. If you need to re-enforce them and get them up to current code, even better. The Freedom Tower is ugly and an eye sore, bring back our "twins"!

 william kahle All Other Americans 7/1/2007

 Keith Kollarik  All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Build it one story higher!

 David Shumaker Architects and Builders 7/1/2007

Replace what was taken away. To those who believe rebuilding would only invite a third attack, I respectfully insist that the issue is not the design of the towers but our resolve to rid the planet of the menace of Islamist extremism. To acknowledge such fear is to understand that there is still much work to be done before we're truly free. Anything short of rebuilding smacks of concession to the enemy and may well prove to be no more than a monument to caving into fear.

 Kevin Hall Architects and Builders 7/1/2007

 Mike Burgess All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Thank God there is someone organizing this effort! Why would we do anything but rebuild it the same way it was?

 Lubomir Mitropolitsky All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Building something else will signal that the Twins were a mistake in the first place and OBL helped us to correct it. Hence, rebuild the Twins! Made them taller and better!

By not rebuilding the Twin Towers, and replacing them with something else, is to admit defeat! It is to admit that what the terrorists hate about America is offensive and should be changed. By not rebuilding the Twin Towers (meaning something closely resembling them) we are letting the terrorists choose our landscape. We are giving voice to the preferences of those who seek to destroy us.

 Andrew Kernaghan 9/11 Families & Close Friends 7/1/2007

My close family friend Jackie was killed in the towers please rebuild them as the should be! Not as politicians want them. I looked at those towers all of my adult life and they stood for an ideal that all poeple have inherent right to exist as it wishes and still do business with others who may disagree. A small group of people disagree with that concept and think only there way of life counts! we need to show them they are wrong!

 Byron Gustafson All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Let New York City be proud and stand behind this project and get construction industry the boost it needs in the area. Do it now when it cheaper to build than later.

 Michael Chisum All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Seems like rebuilding what was destroyed would be the best memorial.

Rebuilding the WTC is the strongest message we, the American people, could send to the islamic terrorists.

Yes, I agree they should be rebuilt the way they were originally.

 D Sullinger  All Other Americans 7/1/2007

Rebuild the twin towers, destroy terrorism worldwide; we win.

 Matt Yule All Other Americans 7/1/2007

They were more than buildings. They were icons — symbols of America. They WTC needs to be bold and inspiring. Rebuild them the way they were.

 Tom Horan  All Other NY & NJ Residents 7/1/2007

What better way to show that what they knock down we can put back. Obviously using new technology to make them safer but the outsides remaining the same.

Please Note: This petition is meant to provide a forum for this subject alone. It is a petition, not a bulletin board. We will not sanitize controversial remarks if the comments are primarily in support of the petition's purpose. But off-topic remarks are subject to removal on a case-by-case basis to keep the focus where it belongs. Thank you.

Important Mention: Those who read back over the comments will find that from time to time we have highlighted excerpts to help those who only have time to skim a page get a sense of what people are thinking and feeling. We rarely do that now and it was never a methodical effort, but just a window on public opinion regarding this monumentally important issue. The important thing to know is that no comment matters more than any other. Each one is valued and helps make the case that the public was sidelined on something that mattered so much.

TTA Note: Occasionally a current signature will disappear. When that happens it is because someone who has already signed the petition signs a second time and when the second signature is validated the two are automatically merged and appear in the original chronology. If someone leaves a second signature and comment, it automatically overwrites the earlier placement when the validation link is activated. If it isn't activated, or it is made using a different email address, there will be duplicate signatures. When we recognize that someone has signed before, we will delete the earlier entry and, if it was verified, verify the new one, since the clear intention is to make the new comment visible. We may decide to manually include the earlier comment at the end of the current message.

Regarding anonymous signatures: Taking a stand using one's full name is always preferred, but when a name is withheld, the signature and sentiments are still of value. In every case, we have an email address that corresponds with the entry and is kept private.

* Indicates that the signer has not yet activated the validation link, often due to spamblocking software. They are included out of respect for the sincerity of the comments.
