Rebuilding the Twin Towers should have been a foregone conclusion... nobody suggested turning the collapsed section of the Pentagon into a garden/park/waterfall.

— Tom Insley / Citizens of Other Nations

The world was robbed of the 21st-century Twin Towers most of us always wanted.

This should have been done immediately after 911 to show our defiance. Although late, it should still be done. Pue 'em back the way they were.

They are icons of the US. We need the towers back. America needs them back. We need something there that is taller and better than before.

Lieutenant General Timothy Maude, the highest-ranking military officer killed in the attack on the Pentagon, was my cousin. We rebuilt the Pentagon, we can and should rebuild the Twin Towers.

The towers should look exactly the way they did, majestic. Any engineering by strengthening of the structure itself should come into play, but as far as the appearance of the towers, let them stand exactly as they did and the skyline of NYC will send a great message to everyone who can see it.

It's a travesty that the WTC is not being rebuilt higher in honor of those who died in this atrocity and as a message to the enemies of civilization that we won't submit or weaken but will come back stronger.

I loved the Twin Towers. I want to see them rise again, not only for their beauty but also in defiance of the mystical savages who hate life and seek to destory the products of human greatness and what they depend on: reason, egoism and liberty.
-  Dave Kurdelski All Other Americans 4/25/2006
Build it higher.

"Strong and the Free" is a matter of character. Political freedom means being free from having to alter one's actions due to the violent or threatening acts of other men (whether foreign or domestic). Political 'strength' is the economic power of free, productive individuals (and the proper source of military strength). Only weak character will stop American citizens from building the towers to 1776', or to a record height. Please "roll!"

I will never forget you. We shouldn't have let politics get in the way of what should have been started 4 years ago, rebuilding the towers. We owe it to the innocent people who had their lives taken and to send a message to the Killers that we will over come

Yes, I strongly agree that we should rebuild the twin tower as it was, only stronger. I think it would show to the world that how strong our nation is.

 Adri Kalisvaart All Other Americans 4/25/2006

Please Note: This petition is meant to provide a forum for this subject alone. It is a petition, not a bulletin board. We will not sanitize controversial remarks if the comments are primarily in support of the petition's purpose. But off-topic remarks are subject to removal on a case-by-case basis to keep the focus where it belongs. Thank you.

Important Mention: Those who read back over the comments will find that from time to time we have highlighted excerpts to help those who only have time to skim a page get a sense of what people are thinking and feeling. We rarely do that now and it was never a methodical effort, but just a window on public opinion regarding this monumentally important issue. The important thing to know is that no comment matters more than any other. Each one is valued and helps make the case that the public was sidelined on something that mattered so much.

TTA Note: Occasionally a current signature will disappear. When that happens it is because someone who has already signed the petition signs a second time and when the second signature is validated the two are automatically merged and appear in the original chronology. If someone leaves a second signature and comment, it automatically overwrites the earlier placement when the validation link is activated. If it isn't activated, or it is made using a different email address, there will be duplicate signatures. When we recognize that someone has signed before, we will delete the earlier entry and, if it was verified, verify the new one, since the clear intention is to make the new comment visible. We may decide to manually include the earlier comment at the end of the current message.

Regarding anonymous signatures: Taking a stand using one's full name is always preferred, but when a name is withheld, the signature and sentiments are still of value. In every case, we have an email address that corresponds with the entry and is kept private.

* Indicates that the signer has not yet activated the validation link, often due to spamblocking software. They are included out of respect for the sincerity of the comments.
