THE ALLIANCE THE PETITION THE COMMENTS THE INDEX THE COALITION THE JOURNAL THE INSTITUTE

I travel widely across the US, and when the topic arises, I have never heard a single person indicate a preference for any option other than rebuilding the WTC.

— Doug Reuben / Business Supporters

The world was robbed of the 21st-century Twin Towers most of us always wanted.

Click above for more comments that rebuke the cynicism that tried to replace the Twin Towers and failed.

Although I believe there are alternatives to rebuilding the twins, I believe any new structure should be at least one story taller than the original towers (with a public observation deck at its peak).

We need to show the terrorists that we're not afraid of them, and that no matter how many times they may tear us down, we'll always get back up!

What a Tribute.

I loved those buildings, pull out the blue prints and lets get to work, just add a couple of stories for a memorial to those who were murdered by those Islamic terrorists.

The ONLY possible thing to do is restore the great Twin Towers! How can one unattractive building replace two magnificent structures that stood for Peace? This is New York Engineering at its best and skyscrapers that defined a skyline!

 Harry Dimitriou All Other Americans 3/24/2006
Do the right thing - REBUILD BIGGER & BETTER! REBUILD THE TWIN TOWERS!

 William K. Pedersen All Other NY & NJ Residents 3/24/2006
Let's not build a monument that will give Osama and his cowardly pigs an opportunity to boast that an elaborate new tower is really a tribute to their success. Rebuild the towers as they were, but stronger! Show the world we're still here, but stronger! Let the towers be our symbol of strength and determination to rid the world of the Osama virus.

 Rodney Rawlings Citizens of Other Nations 3/24/2006
They wanted the Twin Towers gone. As long as the Towers stay gone, the haters of the US and all it stands for will feel a certain satisfaction. Let the WTC rise again to put these representatives of the premodern ages on notice that their world is on

I can't imagine anyone seriously contemplating this question and coming up with any other conclusion than to rebuild the twin towers...as they were, only better, stronger, and safer.

The Freedom Tower would never be able to restore what was lost that tragic day. Rebuilding the towers is the only answer.

Always think of 9/11 and what the city went through.

 Tom Yeoman Citizens of Other Nations 3/22/2006
The Twin Towers motif must be restored — and in a way that truly fills the unbelievable hole from September 11th. An identical second Freedom Tower could do that... but the Belton-Gardner design should really get first preference.

Rise up!

At Good Shepherd Church I witnessed the suffering of many families, one of which who lost her son and his body never recovered. Prior to 911, I too suffered the tragic loss of my daughter, my heart bled for each and every family, I cried daily.

Build them tall so we may once again occupy the sky.

Daniel Jason All Other Americans 3/23/2006

I'd like to add my comment here saying that rebuilding the Twin Towers is the right thing to do,and I am proud of all of these people showing their support on rebuilding the famous icon Twin Towers. The NY governor and NYC mayor really need to allow rebuilding the same Twin Towers and dump the Freedom Tower. Rebuilding the Twin Towers shows respect to the people who died there and its shows those cowards that brought the buildings down that those cowards lost and America won. Rebuild those Towers.We all need to get together and write to the mayor and governor and maybe hold protests.

Relocated to GA in August, 2002. Was a lifelong NY resident until then. Was living and working on Long Island that most horrific day. My oldest son was among the thousands who, thankfully, were missing only for that day as he worked in lower Manha

The towers need to be restored. It would help to heal a nation & make old movies/shows/stills once again viewable. We could build them a couple floors taller & lobby/grounds & top floors could be the memorials. It'd be a "f*#@ you" to the terroris

Nicholas Hawtin All Other Americans 3/23/2006

Rebuild the twin towers taller and more powerful. Our politicians should be behind the rebuilding of these great buildings.

Warren Farr All Other Americans 3/21/2006

Besides a fitting memorial I would support rebuilding twins at least as tall as before or one of several 3-tower systems, such as the one I propose at <http://www.warrenfarr.com/rebuild>

As a former employee working in the upper floors of WTC 1, and a relative of one of the 9/11 survivors, I strongly feel the City needs to have the towers back as they were. Their beauty far surpasses any of the replacements presently proposed.

Rebuilding the Twin Towers is the only way to bring back what we lost as New Yorkers, and for our great city. By not rebuilding, we're giving in to those awful cave dwellers and letting politicians stand in our way. When something is destroyed, it's rebuilt! Why is it that other countries are getting taller buildings but we can't get Twin Towers, this is an insult, a shame! Let's start over, no more nonsense or political talk. It's time to REBUILD THE TWIN TOWERS AND BETTER! I missed them!

Important Mention: Those who read back over the comments will find that from time to time we have highlighted excerpts to help those who only have time to skim a page get a sense of what people are thinking and feeling. We rarely do that now and it was never a methodical effort, but just a window on public opinion regarding this monumentally important issue. The important thing to know is that no comment matters more than any other. Each one is valued and helps make the case that the public was sidelined on something that mattered so much.
