Rebuilding the Twin Towers should have been a foregone conclusion... nobody suggested turning the collapsed section of the Pentagon into a garden/park/waterfall.

— Tom Insley / Citizens of Other Nations

The world was robbed of the 21st-century Twin Towers most of us always wanted.

Click above for more comments that rebuke the cynicism that tried to replace the Twin Towers and failed.

Rebuild

Ian Moore Citizens of Other Nations 3/24/2007
A city skyline may be added to, but once built, usually never changes. When the majestic twin towers fell on 9-11, I always hoped and always felt that the right thing to do was to build them back again: exactly the same height, same façade, everything. The only thing that should change is their position so as not to build on the original footprint, just stagger them opposite the original layout. The latest building technology should be incorporated as well. Please rebuild them America!

Russell Canney All Other Americans 3/24/2007
I feel rebuilding the towers nearly as they were, will deliver the message to whoever was responisble, that we the people will prevail no matter whatever the trials they bring against us... and that truth, faith, charity, justice and liberty are not ideas of a forgotten nation.

John Ingersoll All Other Americans 3/23/2007
NO CONTESTS, NO NEW DESIGNS, NO HAND WRINGING, NO NEED TO "UNDERSTAND" THE ENEMY THAT'S TRYING TO KILL US, NO WONDERING, NO DEBATE, NO POLLS, NO VOTING. THIS IS NOT A HARD QUESTION TO ANSWER...
REBUILD THE TWIN TOWERS AS THEY WERE!!!
BUSINESS AS USUAL!!!
END OF DISCUSSION!!!

Glenn Weller * All Other Americans 3/23/2007
By rebuilding the towers even taller, we would be like the Marines raising the American flag at Iwo Jima in WW II. Victorious in the face of our enemies.

When we fall and something breaks, we get it fixed. Our Twin Towers had a fall, it is time to get them fixed.

Mark Whitley All Other Americans 3/7/2007
It would be in honor and tribute to those who lost their lives as well as their families if the Towers were rebuilt in the same location as the previous ones.

Dennis Banning All Other Americans 3/7/2007
Yes, build them to look the same but not with the obvious structural flaws. And, if they're knocked down, we'll build them the same again, again and again. Let them be a symbol to all our foes, "Don't tread on me!"

Jacob Richter All Other Americans 3/7/2007
The peope who destroyed the World Trade Center were sub human. New York needs to show the strength of the American people and rebuild new, stronger, safer and taller twin towers.

John Canale All Other NY & NJ Residents 3/7/2007
Yes, bring back the twin towers!!

konstantine karakostas All Other Americans 3/7/2007
the towers should be rebuilt just to make a point that america will not backdown and that terrorists will not scare us in any manner! the towers symbolize everything that america stands for, the different ethnicities, as well as, different cultures.
rebuild the towers! enough already!

Check out Belton and Gardner's plans to rebuild the Twin Towers. <http://www.trirac.com/wtc/> Donald Trump supports their plans. And their memorial is brilliant.

This website is not as scalable as newer sites are and is best viewed on full-size monitors.

Rebuild! Win this war at all costs! We are not pansies.

Rebuild the twin towers higher than before to show the world that america is the true leader of democracy under GOD.

 Tom West * All Other Americans 3/17/2007
I went on the WTC when I was a little kid, it had an amazing view, even though I have a faint memory of it. It was my favorite building in New York. Freedom Tower sounds stupid, because most of the world is free now, we've lost our reputation as the free nation 200 years ago. We can't lose to Muslim milatia! Go America! Coming from a Californian.

 c m WTC Tenants Who Would Return 3/16/2007
i think it was all the government there were bombs and it would of bin still standing if it was not for them. i think they should be rebuilt out of the governments money.

 Hanya Poczynok All Other Americans 3/16/2007
As a teenager growing up in Jersey City, my friends and I would go to Manhattan, via PATH to WTC, and shop and eat.
Every time I return to NY/NJ my heart breaks again seeing the gap in the skyline. Not rebuilding the Towers sends a message "We are weak, you can bully us and our response will be meek".

The Towers were lovely; we all loved them. Build them again, stronger than ever!

I think the towers should be rebuilt, but left as an empty shell above the floors where each were hit;this to represent the emptyness in our hearts.I would make the floor just below each of these floors a museum with a see through window to enable people to look upwards into the emptyness. On the top of each building, I would place a light to shine into the sky to represent all the soles we lost. Our loved ones lost their lives in the buildings, not the footprints.Our skyline would be restored

 Phil Tran All Other Americans 3/9/2007
In the War of 1812, the British burned down the White House. Did we leave a footprint there for perpetual mourning? No, we rebuilt the White House in defiance. We must resolve to rebuild the exact same Twin Towers. We can never let terrorists change the landscape of America.

Living in Connecticut, I drive into or past Manhattan occasionally and, to this day, it still feels like a punch in the gut when I look at the NYC skyline without our beloved towers standing there. It brings a tear to my eyes every time. I can't imagine why anyone would NOT want to rebuild and reclaim what was ours. Until our towers are back where they belong, there will always be a hole in our hearts.

 Alex Duke All Other Americans 3/5/2007

I have had fond memories of the Twin Towers. I used to see them standing tall and proud as I played with my friends in a park. I went up in them on January 11th, 2001. My mom went up in them while they were being built. I want my children to look up to the skyline and see reborn Twin Towers standing tall for a new generation. There is nothing freedomy about the Freedom Tower. It should never have been thought up. The Twin Towers symbolized "standing together." God Speed TTA.

 Everett Defieux All Other Americans 3/3/2007

I think that we need to rebuild the Twin Towers. Just because they want us to be scared doesn't mean we have to submit to those who knocked the towers down!

 Lewis Hodge * Citizens of Other Nations 3/3/2007

I have everyday since 911 wanted America to rebuild the the twin towers.I keep thinking that the current site on ground zero from where the freedom tower is being constructed should include the new north tower with the south tower diagonal from it just like the originals.The new twin towers could have more reflective facades than the old twin towers,like wtc 7 currently has to make them look more updated.

 Anthony Chase All Other Americans 3/3/2007

Freedom Tower?! Let Me Just Say, WTF? Rebuild The Twin Towers! The Only Person That Has The Right Idea About This Is Donald Trump. I First Saw The Towers On My Very First Visit To New York, And They Were Stunning! But Now, The Manhattan Skyline Looks Completely Different, In Fact, It Look Naked! Please Restore The Buildings We Know And Love.

 Vic Haines Citizens of Other Nations 3/2/2007

The only way to defeat terror is to rebuild the Towers stronger than before. I went to New York for the first time last year and could not see the Twin Towers. I hope I can see them when I return.

Cheers

I ask what better momument of remembrance could we as a country build other than the Twin Towers? What else would be fitting? A Lobby in each to commemorate the old and added floors with space for the tokens from loved ones who lost their family members in the observation decks. What better symbol of our endurance and resilience could we ever hope to build? Build them back higher stronger and more boldly, not some monstrous compromise of design and disunity.

 Ravi Upadhyay All Other NY & NJ Residents 3/1/2007

Please rebuild the towers. They were an American icon. When they were lost I felt as if a part of me was lost as well. The new design just does not cut it. Only by replacing the towers will we be even more united against the enemy again. Nothing can look as beautiful as the Twin Towers.

 Joey Mulkerin Metro New Yorkers 3/1/2007

All we have done since 9/11 is let the terrorists succeed. bin laden was not captured and we went into iraq who did not even attack us. The taliban is starting to regain power in afganastan. Utop all of this the Twin Towers space is still empte. We MUST rebuild the WTC.

No structure or structures can replace the original twin towers but a new set of twin towers exactly the same.

We will not sanitize controversial remarks if the comments are primarily in support of the petition's purpose. But off-topic remarks are subject to removal on a case-by-case basis to keep the focus where it belongs. Thank you.

Important Mention: Those who read back over the comments will find that from time to time we have highlighted excerpts to help those who only have time to skim a page get a sense of what people are thinking and feeling. We rarely do that now and it was never a methodical effort, but just a window on public opinion regarding this monumentally important issue. The important thing to know is that no comment matters more than any other. Each one is valued and helps make the case that the public was sidelined on something that mattered so much.

TTA Note: Occasionally a current signature will disappear. When that happens it is because someone who has already signed the petition signs a second time and when the second signature is validated the two are automatically merged and appear in the original chronology. If someone leaves a second signature and comment, it automatically overwrites the earlier placement when the validation link is activated. If it isn't activated, or it is made using a different email address, there will be duplicate signatures. When we recognize that someone has signed before, we will delete the earlier entry and, if it was verified, verify the new one, since the clear intention is to make the new comment visible. We may decide to manually include the earlier comment at the end of the current message.

Regarding anonymous signatures: Taking a stand using one's full name is always preferred, but when a name is withheld, the signature and sentiments are still of value. In every case, we have an email address that corresponds with the entry and is kept private.
