REBUILD THE TWIN TOWERS! Nothing has rewarded the jihadists more than the ongoing sight of a world landmark wiped off the face of the earth

— Don Taylor (Citizen of Other Nations)

The world was robbed of the 21st-century Twin Towers most of us always wanted.

Click above for more comments that rebuke the cynicism that tried to replace the Twin Towers and failed.

anything less than what was there before is an admission of fear and defeat.in fact,both buildings should be at least one floor higher.have a beautiful museum on the ground floor dedicated to preserving the artifacts and explaining exactly what happened on 9/11.

Ken White All Other Americans 8/30/2006

My buddy Zak had the window of his car broken out and his radio stolen. He had replaced both by noon and put the car in the same spot. I asked him why and he taught me something powerful... he wanted the perpetrator to see his resolve. Wanted the criminal to know that they had no power, that evil has no power over determination. Americans show thier resolve every day they go to work in New York unafraid and we need to show those terrorists that they will never have an impact on us.

No design will be able to restore NYC to it's beauty and glory but the reconstruction of the original twin tower design with the additin of a few floors to demonstrate this nation will not yield to terrorism and grow stronger from the event of 9/11.

Michael Sadowski Citizens of Other Nations 8/30/2006

The skyline of NY will never be the same if the towers are not rebuilt. It will not look the same, nor will it feel 'right'. Without those two magnificent structures dwarfing all other building on the skyline, it will never feel like good ol New York. I think we need these building back to honour the dead and fulfill the healing process.

Bring'em back!

This would show our enemies and the world that you can't keep the USA down, and it would also be a fitting memorial to those whom we lost on that tragic day, that they will live in our hearts forever.

Nothing less than complete restoration of the Twin Towers will suffice. Any sort of memorial that doesn't do anything but remind us without restoring at least part of what was lost is meaningless.

Prove to those who cannot even begin to build such things (but can only destroy them) that we can, and we will, rebuild the towers.

I think rebuilding the twin towers would show the terrorists and other people who are trying to undermine this country that we are not afraid of them. This would send a message to them that they cannot mess with this great nation.

I support rebuilding the towers (with anti-aircraft installations on the roof), only second to building one big, 200 story tall tower, standing up in the NYC skyline as the biggest possible New York middle finger to the islamofascist world.

George Riffone NYC's Finest & Families 8/26/2006

As a retired NYCPD, with 27 years of service, Watching those two building being built from the ground up and then seeing them destroyed from the top down, I believe and agree that these building MUST be replaced the same way as before.

richard weddle All Other Americans 8/26/2006

Put 'em back. I'll support the firms that move in with my business and cash.

Jeff Diekmann * All Other Americans 8/26/2006

Rebuild the twin towers just as before....but make them twice the size.

 Suzanne Parlette All Other Americans 8/30/2006

I don't think America can heal properly without rebuilding a replica of the beautiful Twin Towers as they were. We have to do everything we can to wipe out terrorism and its effects. Let's show the world we have the ability to restore America spiritually, emotionally, and physically. The skyline of lower Manhattan will not be the same without the soaring towers. The best memorial we can give to those who lost their lives or were injured that horrible day is to rebuild those towers.

 Joseph Christ All Other NY & NJ Residents 8/30/2006

Dump the freedom center! Rebuild the towers one story higher.

 Tanya Polkowska All Other NY & NJ Residents 8/30/2006

"They" knocked them down and we are obligated to rebuild bigger and stronger Towers! They were a symbol and thus should remain so. A symbol that we can and will rebuild stronger and better each time!

I grew up going to my backyard, looking up and seeing the towers, that's how close I was to them.

I was in training (military in Mississippi) on 9/11 - it took me 3days to get back to the tri-state area, my unit provided support for the rescuers @ Ground Hero.

rebuild them,
they would be the best practical office space,
they would be the best monument,
they would be the best image of what america is and what the enemy hates.
rebuild them and rub it in!

 Ole Pedersen Metro New Yorkers 8/30/2006

The sooner the better

 Nick Damron All Other Americans 8/30/2006

Build either one huge tower, or two smaller but still large towers. America can show it's defiance to terrorism by replacing that which was lost by something wonderfull and inspiring. Build it big, and build it proud!

 Oliver Gellerman Metro New Yorkers 8/29/2006

To me and many New Yorkers, rebuilding the Twin Towers wild definitely make a statement to the terrorists that we are stronger than ever. The Freedom Tower represents weakness by Governor Pataki and those in charge of the reconstruction. They should scrap the idea for the Freedom Tower and rebuild the Towers stronger than before and with a better memorial.

the only way to stick it to the bastards that knocked the towers down, is to rebuild them bigger and stronger.. plus it's what the people want , they , we , don't want anything else.. what part of this don't you understand ?? rebuild , rebuild , rebuild the twin towers ...

This is a no-brainer. Build it right back up. Only a nation of cowards would do otherwise. And make it at least one foot taller. And eff france, the isslamist collaborators.

 Donald Kroll All Other NY & NJ Residents 8/25/2006

I have a picture of myself on the Staten Island ferry with the Twin Towers in the background. And this was before Battery Park City was built!

 Dustin V All Other Americans 8/25/2006

I must say, the Freedom Towers is somewhat a good idea, but we need the actual towers back. Bush is fighting (or so called) fighting terrorism so it won't happen again and what is 16 acres of these magnificent towers (and their large sizes) going to do. Re-build the towers the way they were if I may say so.

 Richard Graham All Other Americans 8/25/2006

Rebuild the towers. I remember stopping in at a cafe for my morning coffee on the morning of 911 and seeing burning skyscrapers on the TV. The only change I would make to the towers is to put the escape stairwells on the four corners, not in the middle of the buildings. Also make the stairwells bigger so more people can go down at the same time. A plaque should be in the lobby of both buildings with the names of every person who died in that building on 911. Oh, and then lets really go to war.
